MARC Records - General Statement of Use
Machine Readable Records (MARC) are created by Access Educational Media LLC and is a unique product that has been developed solely for Licensor. The structure of each MARC record conforms to national and international standards for Information Interchange Format (ANSI Z39.2-1994) and format for Information Exchange (ISO 2709-1996) and universal content designators defined by MARC21. While these standards define a universal format for bibliographic data exchange and the material types that can be described in the format, the content of most data elements within the format is defined by standards outside the formats, mainly the Anglo-American Cataloging Rules and the On-Line Audiovisual Catalogers best practice recommendations. For this reason, MARC cannot be copied nor resold without the express permission of Licensor and/or Access Educational Media LLC.

Disclaimer of Warranties
Films On Demand is supplied ‘as is’ and Licensor makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, including, but not limited to, warranties of design, accuracy of the information contained in the Video Titles, merchantability, or fitness of use for a particular purpose. The video titles in the Nursing Collection are no substitute for individual patient assessment based upon the subscribers’ healthcare professionals’ examination of each patient and consideration of, among other things, age, weight, gender, current or prior medical conditions, medication history, laboratory data and other factors unique to the patient. While the video titles may describe various basic principles of diagnosis and therapy, the video titles should be used as general medical reference materials to assist the healthcare professional reach diagnostic and treatment decisions, bearing in mind that individual and unique circumstances may lead the subscriber (and its healthcare professionals) to reach decisions not represented in the video titles. End user (and its healthcare professionals) should exercise their own independent professional and clinical judgment, taking into account specific information about particular individual patients that cannot be ascertained or taken into account as a part of necessarily generic or summary online service(s). No referenced or suggested test, procedure or responsive action should be directed or undertaken unless, in the end user’s (and its healthcare professionals’) professional judgment, its use is medically appropriate for the individual patient in the particular circumstances. Subscriber and its healthcare professionals are solely responsible for the use of any content contained in the video titles and end user’s healthcare professionals are responsible for independently reaching any medical judgment and for any resulting diagnosis and treatments, notwithstanding any use of the video titles or the content contained therein by such healthcare professional. The video titles are provided on an “as is” basis and without any warranties of any kind, express or implied. Infobase Learning and its licensors and affiliates disclaim all warranties with respect to the licensed content, express or implied, including, but not limited to, warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, title, quiet enjoyment and information completeness, currency or accuracy.

Limitation of Liability
Under no circumstances shall the Licensor, its affiliates or content providers be liable to the Licensee or any other person, including but not limited to Authorized Users, for any special, exemplary, incidental or consequential damages of any character arising out of the inability to use, or the use of, the Video Titles. Irrespective of the cause or form of action, the Licensor’s aggregate liability for any claims, losses, or damages arising out of any breach of this License shall in no circumstances exceed the subscription fee paid by the Licensee to the Licensor under this license in respect of the Subscription Term during which such claim, loss or damage occurred. The foregoing limitation of liability and exclusions of certain damages shall apply regardless of the success or effectiveness of other remedies.

Licensor shall not be responsible for any problems or delays that may occur in or on or be related to any of Licensee's computer hardware, firmware, software, or use thereof. With the exception of the rights to use Films On Demands, all other provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination and shall continue to legally bind Licensee. No delay or failure of Licensor to take action under this Agreement will constitute a waiver by Licensor, unless expressly waived in writing by Licensor.
